HOUSEHOLD CARES.

Tax The Woman Of Lancaster The Same As Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back. And she seldom would if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands. Have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years. Read what this Lancaster woman says:

Mrs. H. G. Crutchfield, Stanford St., Lancaster, Ky., says: "My little boy aged six years was greatly troubled by his back and kidneys. He did not have proper control over the kidney secretions which caused no end of annoyance. The child also looked badly and I was considerably worried about his health. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box and began giving them to him according to directions. He is now a great deal better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BUENA VISTA

Mrs. Jesse Rogers is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lane of Danville were recent visitors at J. F. Rubles. Miss Florence Williams of Louisville is visiting Mrs. Tracy and other friends. Rev. Simpson of Burgin is conducting a meeting at Lindendale school house.

The Misses Abbott from near Lawrenceburg were week end guests at J. W. Scotts.

Miss Ruth Lane was the guest of Miss Martha Munday near Harrodsburg last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Christopher were called to Lexington by the illness of Mrs. Christopher's father.

Miss Jennie Skinner visited friends at Harrodsburg last Wednesday and attended the reception given the teachers of Boyle and Lincoln Co.

The farm and household goods of Wm. Christopher deceased was sold at public auction last Wednesday, A. T. Scott Auctioneer. The farm was purchased by H. C. Ruble at $89.85 per acre.

STOP SCALP ITCH

No 3. Dandruff and Every Form of Scalp Disease Cured Quick by Zemo.

It is simply wonderful how Zemo goes after dandruff. You rub a little of it in with the tips of the fingers. It gets right down into the glands, stimulates them, stops the itch, and makes the head feel fine. No, it isn't sticky! Zemo is a fine, clear, vanishing liquid. You don't have to even wash your hands after using Zemo. And what a wonder it is for eczema, rash, pimples and all skin afflictions. A 25-cent trial bottle at R. E. McRoberts & Son, Drug Store, is guaranteed to stop any skin irritation.

Zemo is prepared by E. W. Rose Medicine Co., St. Louis Mo., and is regularly sold by druggists at $1 a bottle. But to prove what it will do at trifling expense, Zemo is now put up in 25-cent trial bottles.

Fair A Success Beyond All Expectations.

The eighth annual exhibition of the Lancaster Fair has passed into history and the last meeting fully equalled, if not excelled, any previous meeting, and taking into consideration the limited amount of time devoted to getting it up, it was really a marvel in the way of a fair. The attendance, while being splendid, and which enabled the promoters to clear quite a tidy sum, was somewhat interfered with by the fact that the season was backward and the weather during the progress of the fair was ideal for farm work. The exhibitions were never surpassed in the history of a Lancaster fair, and there was hot contention for every premium. Below will be found a list of the winners:—

Saved!

"I refused to be operated on, the morning I heard about Cardui," writes Mrs. Elmer Sickler, of Terre Haute, Ind. "I tried Cardui, and it helped me greatly. Now, I do my own washing and ironing."

E 63 Take CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is a mild, tonic remedy, purely vegetable, and acts in a natural manner on the delicate, womanly constitution, building up strength, and toning up the nerves. In the past 50 years, Cardui has helped more than a million women. You are urged to try it, because we are sure that it will do you good. At all drug stores.

ECONOMY STEAM.

An Irishman, just landed, secured a position as fireman in a large factory. The chief engineer instructed him in his new duties, saying: "To run our engine we require 165 pounds of steam; you can always tell how much steam you have by looking at this gauge."

Shortly afterward the engineer noticed that the engine was slowing down. Calling to the boiler room, he inquired of Pat how much steam he had on.

"Oh have a hundred and forty-four pounds, sorr," answered the new fireman.

"Why, man I told you we had to have 165 pounds to run."

"Niver mind that," was the cheerful answer. "Use what ye have got, an' whin that's gone Oi'll have more for ye."—Everybody's.

A Reasonable Explanation.

"Well, my little man, have you any little brothers?"

"No."

"And little sisters?"

"No."

"Aren't you sorry?"

"No."

"Why aren't you sorry?"

"Cause a box of strawberries is hardly enough to go round in our family now."

A GOOD GUESS.

Miranda—I saw you with a gentleman in an auto last night. I only saw one of his arms. Did he only have one? Myrtella—The other was around somewhere, I guess!

A Painful Ordeal.

When "Trotter" turns a dollar loose he never wears a smile. Just hates to see it put to use and grumbles all the while.

His Resolve.

"Pa, I am going to marry William." "Then you'll make a bad bargain." "But I want him. Tomorrow he is coming and I am going to send him to you."

"If you do, I'll treat him as I have to do the rest of your bargains."

"How's that, pa?"

"I'll foot your bill."

Tough on Willie.

"George," said her husband's wife, "I don't believe you have smoked one of those cigars I gave you on your birthday."

"That's right, my dear," replied his wife's husband. "I'm going to keep them until our Willie wants to learn to smoke."

Unreasonable.

"You are unreasonable," declared the physician.

"Why so, Doc?"

"You stuff yourself with twenty kinds of rich food, and then kick because you have to take two kinds of medicine."

Stopped Him.

"How's that girl whose face you said was like a picture?"

"I called on her just last night. I intended to propose."

"And did you?"

"No, her face was too much like a negative."

THREE STRIKES.

Fiend—It must have nettled Smashem to fan the air three times when he went to bat.

Crank—Yes, I could see that he felt put out.

Painful.

The man who doth a-fishing go, And gets sunburned the while, Doth after wear a look of woe And finds it hard to smile.

A Warrior Bold.

Plain Girl—The man that marries me must be a hero.

Pretty One—Well, he'd have to be—Judge.

Indian Killed On Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it is that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I gained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. E. McRoberts & Son. 1m

PAINT LICK.

Mrs. Treadway of Heidelberg has been the guest of her son Dr. Lucian Treadway.

Mr. Hubert Griggs of Richmond spent Friday night and Saturday with his aunt Mrs. L. C. Rucker.

Mrs. Dan Burchell has returned from several weeks stay with her daughter Mrs. Arthur Botner.

Miss Jane Terry entertained the young folks last Saturday night in honor of her visitor Miss Mason.

Misses Nellie and Louese Rice have had for their guests Misses Zelle Rice and Nannie Mae Davidson of Richmond.

Mrs. Willie Ralston of Lancaster has returned home after a visit to Mrs. Sam Henderson and Mrs. Geo. Conn.

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred here in a long time was that of Mrs. George Treadway. She was taken seriously ill Monday morning and all that the Physicians, family and friends could do was of no avail, she died Tuesday night, is survived by her bereaved husband and two daughters, Miss Nettie of this place and Mrs. Tom Logston of Berea who have the sympathy of the community. Mrs. Treadway was a faithful member of the Methodist church, a good christian neighbor and friend and beloved by all. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church by the Pastor and burial at old Paint Lick Cemetery.

Flying Men Fall.

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters" he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at R. E. McRoberts & Son.
